

WANTED: Creative Undergrads

Have you worked on a multimedia project related to women's or gender issues?

Apply for the Margery Somers Foster Undergraduate Multimedia Award to Compete for a $250 Reward for your Creativity and Hard Work

Rutgers University Libraries and the Margery Somers Foster Center seek nominations for the Margery Somers Foster Undergraduate Multimedia Award. The $250 award acknowledges the creative use of university library collections and equipment in the production of a women's or gender issue-based multimedia project. All Rutgers University undergraduates of any discipline are eligible to apply. Additional consideration will be given to students who utilize the Fordham Lab at Douglass Library in the production of their projects, or who otherwise employ innovative technologies.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 21, 2011
DON'T MISS OUT ON THIS OPPORTUNITY!

(A MAXIMUM OF TWO $250 AWARDS WILL BE DISTRIBUTED ANNUALLY)

See the Margery Somers Foster Center Website for more information.
<http://www.libraries.rutgers.edu/rul/libs/foster/foster.shtml> or

Contact Kayo Denda, Head, Margery Somers Foster Center at kdenda@rci.rutgers.edu