The New Employee Handbook will introduce you to both the Libraries and the university and contains information on:

- Getting started as a new employee
- Our communities and relocating
- Understanding the Libraries lingo, structure, and locations
- Human resources policies and practices, including benefits and professional development
- Finances, including payroll, budget, and purchasing
- Important contacts and resources

Scan the QR code and/or use the short URL above to access the handbook. Additionally, links to the handbook are available on the Libraries Human Resources and Training and Development Staff Pages and on the Libraries home page, under the “About” heading.

The handbook is maintained by the Professional Development and Continuing Education Committee. Please contact the committee’s co-chairs, Christine Wolff (christine.wolff@rutgers.edu) and Vibiana Bowman Cvetkovic (bowman@camden.rutgers.edu) with any comments or suggestions.
