DH WORKSHOP
Exploring the Landscape of Digital Editions

LED BY ISABELLA MAGNI (DEPT. OF ITALIAN) AND FRANCESCA GIANNELLI (NEW BRUNSWICK LIBRARIES)

Monday, November 11, 2019
Alexander Library, Room 413
2:45PM - 4:15PM

169 College Ave.
New Brunswick, NJ

Curious about the latest developments in digital textual studies? This workshop will provide a hands-on intro to the theory and practice of encoding literary and historical texts for the humanities. This workshop is designed for people considering starting a digital project using primary sources, or who would like to understand the concepts of text markup using the Text Encoding Initiative (TEI) Guidelines.

Images taken from the Petarchive, the Newton Project, Harlem Shadows, and the War Service Bureau Correspondence.