

Camden Campus

Robeson Library

Job Title: Library Assistant

Description: The Paul Robeson Library maintains collections of materials that support undergraduate and graduate instructional course work, assignments, and degree-related research on the Camden Campus. Students working here will provide assistance to Library staff in Access Services, Tech Services or staff member as assigned as well as but not limited to Specific Duties. Responsibilities include charging and discharging books, sorting and shelving library materials, shelf reading, assisting users in locating library materials, answering questions regarding library services and policies, and answering the telephone.

Question and Comments to:
Erica Parin
reparin@rulmail.rutgers.edu